

ANNIE O'SHEA

BIOGRAPHY

---

Annie O'Shea began the sport of skeleton in November 2004 and quickly rose in international standings, claiming the 2007 America's Cup title her first year on the national team. O'Shea claimed the final 2007-08 World Cup spot by winning the final National Team Trials race in Park City, Utah on November 10, 2007. O'Shea is currently enrolled at North Country Community College with a major in Sport Management. O'Shea expects to graduate in December 2007 before transferring to a four-year school.

Photo coming soon

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

---

- 2007 America's Cup Champion
  - 4th in Calgary #1 (11/06), 3rd in Calgary #2 (11/06), 1st in Lake Placid #1 (12/06), 1st in Lake Placid #2 (12/06), 2nd in Park City #1 (12/06), 2nd in Park City #2 (12/06)
- 5th at Junior World Championships in Altenberg, Germany (2/07)
- 1st at Empire State Games in Lake Placid, NY (2/07)
- 14th at Junior World Championships in Igls, Austria (2/06)
- 1st at Empire State Games in Lake Placid, NY (2/06)

Date of Birth September 5, 1987
Birthplace Rockville Center, N.Y.
Hometown Port Jefferson Station, N.Y.
Height 5'5" (1.65)
Weight 133 (60.3)

ABOUT ME:

---

Annie has three sisters, a dog, two cats, and two ducks. "I really wanted a pig, but instead my sisters got ducks," Annie said. Annie's favorite book is Oh, the Places You'll Go, and her favorite movie is The Wedding Planner. Her meal of choice is green beans and meatloaf.

