BIOGRAPHY

Emily Azevedo's decision to become a bobsledder came after watching the 2006 Olympic Winter Games in Torino. Azevedo debuted in the 2006-2007 season. She traveled to World Championships in St. Mortiz, Switzerland with driver Erin Pac where they finished eighth. They also made a World Cup stop in Igls, finishing tenth. Azevedo graduated from the University of California, Davis in 2005 with a degree in exercise biology. While attending UC-Davis, Azevedo was an athlete on the track and field team and currently holds the school record in the 100-meter hurdles.
