

THERON JOHNSON

PUSH ATHLETE

Photo coming soon

| | |
|----------------------|------------------|
| Date of Birth | June 28, 1978 |
| Birthplace | Washington, D.C. |
| Hometown | Wheaton, Md. |
| Height | 5'11" (1.80) |
| Weight | 205 (93) |

Photo: Theron Johnson celebrates after winning four-man U.S. National Championships in Lake Placid, N.Y.

BIOGRAPHY

Theron Johnson made his bobsledding debut in the 2006-2007 season. Johnson started out on the World Cup circuit as a push athlete for both two-man and four-man. He served as a brakeman in the two-man for driver Mike Kohn in Calgary and for Grayson Fertig in Königssee. Johnson teamed up with driver Kohn in the four-man for six races on the World Cup circuit with a highest placement of ninth in Calgary. Johnson claimed the 2007 four-man U.S. National Championship title with driver Grayson Fertig to receive the Billy Fiske trophy.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2007 four-man U.S. National Champion with driver Grayson Fertig in Lake Placid (1/07)
- Push athlete with drivers Mike Kohn and Grayson Fertig in the two-man in 2006-07 World Cup season:
 - 18th in Calgary (12/06), 24th in Königssee (02/07)
- Push athlete with driver Kohn in the four-man in 2006-07 World Cup season:
 - 9th in Calgary (12/06), 10th in Park City (12/06), 11th in Lake Placid (12/06), 13th in Cesana Pariol (02/07), 14th in Winterberg (02/07), 18th in Königssee (02/07)