BIOGRAPHY

Valerie Fleming began bobsledding in 2003 and made it to the 2006 Olympic Games with driver Shauna Rohbock where they won silver. During the 2006-07 season, Fleming pushed Rohbock to a world ranking of third and won four medals. She was also a member of the U.S. women's bobsled team that was honored by the USOC as Team of the Month for January 2005. Fleming graduated from the University of California, Santa Barbara in 1998 with a degree in communications, and was an athlete on USCB's track and field team. Fleming continued her education at St. Mary's College, getting her Master's degree in Health, Physical Education, and Recreation (HPER).
